Theatre Porto's most popular winter show EVER returns and you are invited! Join Little Red as she puts on her bright red coat once again, to go adventuring in the deep dark woods...

Follow our feisty heroine as she follows the path to Grandma's house, meeting talking sheep, dancing trees and the charismatic, jazz-singing 'Wolfie' along the way.

With irresistible adventure, superb visual storytelling and songs that you'll be humming all winter, Little Red is the perfect festive treat for families who want something a little different...

What would you choose? The promise of adventure or the safety of the path?

Don't miss our thrilling and irresistible production which has delighted audiences young and old across the land – get your tickets now!
