Step into the enchanting world of Jack Frost where children and grown-ups become part of the story!

Glide across an imaginary ice rink, take part in a friendly snowball fight and create cherished memories...

Jack Frost's Snow Time Adventure is an immersive installation for the young and very young which offers a sensory and imaginative story experience which captivates and delights.

Show Information & synopsis

Audiences enter a welcoming tent-like space and are transported into the world of Jack Frost who travels the land to bring cheer to children.

On his travels, Jack meets a young boy 'Miles' who finds the town too busy and overwhelming! Despite preferring to stay indoors, Miles ventures outside and discovers a magical wintery landscape, the joy of imaginative play and the power of friendship.

Accessibility

Theatre Porto is committed to welcoming and including all audience members and participants. The show has been designed to meet the needs of younger children and families who prefer a more intimate and relaxed environment.

The space includes; relaxed seating, gentle lighting and soft music and we ask that audience member remove their shoes before entering the space.

There are several moments of gentle interaction during the performance which invites children to respond at their own pace should they want to.

Families are supported with craft making at the end of the performance.

Performance Duration

45 minutes, up to 4-5 times a day (depending on length of run) for a maximum of 16 audience members (includes a snowman making activity at the end which children get to keep).

Performance Style

Interactive storytelling in an immersive environment which incorporates shadow puppetry and projection.

Target Audience / Age / Suitability

A. sensual and gentle show for children aged 2-6 years and their grown-up, can accommodate older siblings, and some children with SEND.
